

Westlake Financial Services Lists Vehicles on Ally's SmartAuction Registered Dealers Can Bid on Westlake Financial Vehicles via the SmartAuction Site or App

DETROIT, May 8, 2018 -- Ally Financial today announced an agreement with Westlake Financial Services, the largest privately held finance company in the country, to list vehicles for sale on SmartAuction, Ally's wholesale auto auction platform.

"We are excited to team with Westlake, a growing national leader in the automotive industry, to be part of its remarketing strategy," said Steve Kapusta, vice president, specialized asset management for Ally. "We look forward to putting the value of SmartAuction and our digital remarketing support to work for Westlake by providing greater reach and convenience for their vehicles in the wholesale marketplace."

Westlake will list vehicles from a variety of brands on SmartAuction. The cars and trucks became available to dealers registered on SmartAuction beginning May 1.

"This relationship with Ally Financial will provide a new digital access point to buyers as we see the remarketing industry become more visible online via auto auctions," stated Ian Anderson, Group President of Westlake Holdings. "Our commitment is to continue to enhance our operational efficiency while connecting with our customers' vehicle buying experience."

SmartAuction is an industry-leading online dealer auction that offers access to an inventory of wholesale vehicles to eligible dealers of all brands with over 25,000 vehicles available daily. All purchases through SmartAuction are backed by a comprehensive arbitration policy.
